Mrs. Craig N. Ligget,
4036 Walnut Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Ligget:

May I express my especial gratitude to you for your generous contribution in this our time of real need. I wrote to a few people and have had some responses which have been encouraging but we are not yet out of the woods. I know you have many calls and I assure you that our idea is not to solicit annually.

I knew your husband very well and sat with him on the trustees of Philadelphia Presbytery. I had great regard for him and I think he reciprocated.

With sincere gratitude and best wishes,

Yours most truly,

WCR*E

Dear Dr Robinson,

I am sending you a donation of $100 as you asked me to help at this time. This is not to be an annual donation and I am overwhelmed with requests for various charities - Sometimes I feel that I would like to have wings and fly away - Your paper has been in my home in Ky since I was a child - I can never remember not seeing it weekly - My father read it from cover to cover; so you see I am following in his foot steps.

Sincerely Yours

Anna L. Leggett

Dear Dr . Robinson:

Some weeks ago you sent me a book on the Inquisition to be reviewed for The Presbyterian. Shortly after I received the volume I wrote a review of it and forwarded it you. Have you received it, and has it apperared in your paper? I have not seen it, if it has, nor am I specially interested in seeing the thing in print; but I just want to know whether you are still looking to me for the material.

Sincerely yours,

Frederick W. Loetscher

Dear Mr. Lanning:

It was very kind of you to write to me in response to my letter which was sent more or less at random. I appreciate your circumstances entirely and certainly there is no blame to you because you did not aid us with a money contribution.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Dr. Loetscher:

Your review was printed last week. We have a great number of books which are sent us and I try to get a review for most of them. The result is our space is more than filled. I thank you for your kind co-operation with me during the months I have occupied this somewhat trying position.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Robinson:

I had the sudden inspiration that perhaps you would like to know that Winifred and Harry will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

sary this Sunday.

Do you remember the happy occasion? You should, Doctor, because you "tied the knot" very tightly.

Her's health is very bad; I saw her this evening and how she suffers! Harry is just "old faithful".

How about a card for "auld lange syne"?

Mr W Cordland Robinson (Editor)
Dear Sir

Your letter of Sep 29. 1931 at hand. I am very sorry indeed that I am not able to contribute toward lifting the financial burden of the Presbyterian.

It would give me great pleasure to give, if I had it, to give.

I have taken the Presbyterian all of my Married life, (fifty one years) and have been strengthened in faith, "and in knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ," through its teachings.

I am not pleading poverty, but as I am now eighty one years of age my earning capacity is meagre; my Income is less. (But) "My Father is rich in houses and lands,
He holds the wealth of the world in his hands
Of Rubies, and Diamonds (silver & gold) His coffers are full
He has Riches untold,"

He is, my Father, No: good thing will he withold from those who love Him.

"I am leaning on His promises,
His promises are "Yea: and Amen in Christ Jesus"

God, will answer prayer, so you and I Dear Editor with many others, will pray that the Presbyterian may be supported, and Her good work continued for many years to come.

My dear Laird:

I was sorry that I could not see you on Monday. I had just arrived and quite a stack of things were at hand to do. I leave today for Delhi to return to the office next Tuesday morning. I would be very happy to meet you at noon Wednesday or Thursday which I presume will be after your Princeton meeting.

With kind regards to Hazel and yourself, I am

Dear Dr. Logan:

I cannot tell you how grateful I was to receive your letter and generous contribution this morning. I sent out several and we have had a few but not many responses. Everyone seems to be very hard pressed. Our trouble is that many who hitherto have stood by find themselves tied up this year. I do not know what the outcome will be but I have great confidence in the good Lord and He has delivered me and my interests many times hitherto and I cannot believe He will leave this old paper that has done such a fine work to go on the rocks.

You have hitherto shown your great interest and I want you to know that we of the office appreciate it very much.

Very sincerely yours,

IN REPLY REFER TO FILE

Dear Dr Robinson

Thanks for the compliment of classing me with men of means but I am not deserving of such location. What small savings I have accumulated are being sadly depleted & the end is not. Actual demands are increasing daily & it is no time for me to take on new obligations. I sincerely ~~wish~~ wish "The Presbyterian" the best of success & hope the good friends who have been standing back of you may still persevere.

With kind regards

Yrs very truly

My Dear Miss McKinney :

Since our loss of Miss Alexander as news editor, I have not been informed who fills that place now. Your knowledge of the work and your experiance there with Miss Alexander would lead me to believe that possibly you are handling that work now. If I am wrong will you kindly hand this note to the proper person, with an absent introduction of myself to them. Kindly give Dr. Robinson my expression of appreciation for the wonderful work he is doing as Editor, and for having a man like Henry P. Crowell among his directors.

Dear Dr. Leonard:

I am in receipt of your letter of September 23rd enclosing item of news for THE PRESBYTERIAN, which will appear in our issue of October 1st. Thank you for the same. We will be glad to use any items pertaining to your work which you think would be of interest to our readers.

I have been looking after Miss Alexander's work since her death and although I have been doing this from time to time in past years, I always knew that it would be of short duration and that Miss Alexander would be at the helm. We miss her very much and of course greatly regret her death although she had not been well for some time and the work was often burdensome. Her leaving us so suddenly was a shock.

Dr. Robinson wishes me to express his appreciation for your words of endorsement for the work he is doing as editor of THE PRESBYTERIAN. He may write you later.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Leonard:

On previous occasions you have been kind enough to receive a word of commendation from me concerning someone else. Yesterday, Albert Swing, son of Dr. R. Hamill D. Swing, called on me and asked me to send you a letter introducing him. He is a bond salesman. I do not know for what bond house. He tells me that you are in a position where you buy many bonds or advise others in that matter. He is very anxious to have you do part of that business through him if you can find it possible. You know Dr. Swing, of course, and Albert is his youngest son, a very attractive young lad and I have never heard a word to his detriment. It would please me personally very much if you will see him when he calls in a day or two and if you can turn something of business in his direction.

I was sorry to read of the explosions which have occurred at Point Breeze. I know you all in the office would be disturbed at the disaster.

Please convey my regards to Mrs. Leonard and also to Mr. Liberton.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Enclosed please find the notice of the book you kindly sent me some days ago, Verrill's on "The Inquisition." As it is not a scholarly work in the ordinary sense of the term, my remarks are of a general character , and I would prefer to have the notice appear only with my initials, rather than my full name.

Dear sir:

I inclose my check for $2.50 to pay my subscription for last year's Presbyterian.

I want to apologize for the delay in sending the check, but the first notice was on my office desk with several other papers, and as my check book was at the house, the matter slipped my mind.— which is no excuse.

Very truly,

My Dear Dr. Robinson:

Having read of the death of Miss Alexander, I am wondering whether you would consider me for the work that she has done. I am confident that I could do this work. I have been a Sunday school teacher for more than thirty years, a high school teacher and a newspaper editor. I have also contributed verse and special articles to many of the leading magazines.

I am referring to the writing alone, assuming that I could do that in my own home. Much of my work has been with children and young people, and I have been very successful in my work with boys at the difficult age.

Sincerely yours
